- Bright Blue Innovation which is a publication owned by other entities

RI qualifies as a tax-exempt organization as described under US Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), which is eligible to receive charitable contributions that are deductible for US income tax purposes. As a result of the 2020 Government shutdown from the COVID Pandemic, we are still awaiting the formal determination letter from the IRS. However they referred to the following statement from the 501(c)(3) documentation:

“Churches (including integrated auxiliaries and conventions or associations of churches) that meet the requirements of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code are automatically considered tax exempt and are not required to apply for and obtain recognition of exempt status from the IRS. Donors are allowed to claim a charitable deduction for donations to a church that meets the section 501(c)(3) requirements even though the church has neither sought nor received IRS recognition that it is tax exempt.”

RI qualifies as a tax-exempt organization as described under the State of California Franchise Tax Board which is eligible to receive charitable contributions that are deductible for US income tax purposes. As a result of the 2020 Government shutdown from the COVID Pandemic, we are still awaiting the formal determination letter from the FTB.
